This will enable KHJ Group to accord the person making the whistleblowing report necessary protection under this Policy and also obtain more details pertaining to the whistleblowing report.

Notwithstanding the above, whistleblowing reports may be made on an anonymous basis. However, natural justice usually requires that the details and identity of the Employee or Stakeholder submitting the whistleblowing report be disclosed in any disciplinary investigation or action to be taken against the person(s) who is a subject of the complaint in the whistleblowing report.

Anonymous whistleblowing reports will therefore be considered at the discretion of the Whistleblowing Governance Group.

In exercising this discretion, the Whistleblowing Governance Group will consider:

- (i) the seriousness of the issues raised,
- (ii) credibility of the whistleblowing report, and
- (iii) likelihood of confirming the allegation from the relevant sources.

Whistleblowing reports should include the following disclosures:

- (i) background and history of the concern (giving relevant dates),
- (ii) credible reasoning/argument for the concern or sufficient evidence such as documents, images, footages, audio, email, text messages, etc, and
- (iii) identity of the person(s) committing the alleged wrongdoing.

Insufficient details in the whistleblowing report may impede the investigation and resolution of the concerns raised.

Nonetheless, regardless of anonymity, all whistleblowing reports shall be treated fairly and without prejudice.

5.0 WHISTLEBLOWING INVESTIGATION

Upon receipt of a whistleblowing report, the Whistleblowing Governance Group will as soon as practicable establish a Whistleblowing Investigation Team comprising appropriate and suitably qualified personnel to investigate the concerns disclosed in the whistleblowing report in a fair and objective manner and at its discretion, consider involving any other or additional officer of KHJ Group and/or Committee and/or an outside agency for the purpose of investigation. However, in the event any member of the Whistleblowing Investigation Team is of the opinion that his/her participation in the investigation may be prejudicial or he/she may not be able to discharge his/her duties in a fair and objective manner, such member is obligated to exclude himself/herself from the investigation by giving fair notice to the Whistleblowing Governance Group.

The investigation by itself would not tantamount to an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. If the Whistleblowing Investigation Team finds that the alleged wrongdoing or misconduct is true, KHJ Group will take appropriate actions including disciplinary action, termination of contract and establishing new controls to prevent recurrence of the wrongdoing or misconduct in KHJ Group.

A member of the Whistleblowing Governance Group or an officer appointed by the Whistleblowing Governance Group will within 10 calendar days, contact the person who submitted the whistleblowing report to:

- (i) acknowledge that the report has been received, and
- (ii) indicate how the report will be dealt.

The Whistleblowing Governance Group will keep a record of all steps taken in response to each whistleblowing report received as well as how the concerns raised were resolved.

The Whistleblowing Governance Group will report their findings to the Audit Committee and Board of Directors.

In cases of suspected criminal activity, including but not limited to fraud, it may be referred to the police at any stage of the investigation and will then be investigated by an external investigator.

6.0 CONFIDENTIALITY AND SAFEGUARDS

The identity of the Employee or Stakeholder who submitted the whistleblowing report may be kept confidential so long as it does not impede or frustrate investigation. All whistleblowing reports will be treated as confidential to the extent reasonably practicable.

The investigation process may reveal the source of the information and the Employee or Stakeholder who raised the concern may be required to provide a statement as part of the evidence.

This Policy offers protection within limits of the law and to the extent reasonably practicable to Employees and Stakeholders who submit whistleblowing reports internally in good faith, even if the allegations prove to be unfounded or mistaken.

These Employees and Stakeholders will be appropriately protected from internal disciplinary actions (if applicable), dismissal, harassment, victimization or informal pressures.

No protection from internal disciplinary action will be offered if Employees do not adhere to the procedures for whistleblowing and disclosures in this Policy.

7.0 MONITORING AND PERIODIC REVIEW OF POLICY

The Whistleblowing Policy and Procedure will be reviewed periodically once every 3 years or as and when necessary to ensure that it continues to remain relevant and appropriate.

This Whistleblowing Policy and Procedure has been revised on 24 November 2023.
